

“COYOTES EXPRESS” TO SHUTTLE FANS FROM EAST VALLEY TO JOBING.COM ARENA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Wednesday, November 11, 2009

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Phoenix Coyotes President and Chief Operating Officer Douglas Moss has announced that the team is introducing the “Coyotes Express,” a program that offers fans a discounted game ticket and shuttle service from two different East Valley locations to Jobing.com Arena on Coyotes game nights. The bus service will be provided by Arizona Shuttle.

Fans who choose to utilize the shuttle service can purchase a $20 upper level ticket or a $30 lower level ticket and will receive a ride to and from Jobing.com Arena from one of two locations. The two pick-up and drop-off locations are the Arizona State University Main Campus (Lot 16) in Tempe and the Gila River Wild Horse Pass Casino (casino entrance) in Chandler. The Wild Horse Pass Casino location will only shuttle fans for weekday games (Mon.-Fri.).

The shuttles will depart the locations 90 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the Coyotes game, and will leave Jobing.com Arena 20 minutes after the conclusion of the game from Lot E.

The Coyotes Express offer is currently available for the following upcoming Coyotes games:

Monday, Nov. 16 vs. Tampa Bay Lightning

Saturday, Nov. 21 vs. Philadelphia Flyers

Friday, Nov. 27 vs. Dallas Stars

Thursday, Dec. 3 vs. Calgary Flames

Saturday, Dec. 5 vs. Ottawa Senators

Monday, Dec. 7 vs. Minnesota Wild

Saturday, Dec. 12 vs. San Jose Sharks

Coyotes Express tickets and maps to the pick-up/drop-off locations are available at www.phoenixcoyotes.com/coyotesexpress. Coyotes Express tickets must be purchased the day before a game at the latest.
